NAV has approved your application for 80 per cent parental benefit

Name: FURHOLT RICHARD I OCHOA

National identity number: 04068528157

We have reconsidered your case, and you are entitled to parental benefit. We have therefore changed the decision you previously have received.

You will receive 461 kroner per day before taxes starting from 4 November 2019. This is 9,988 kroner on average per month. The last day you will receive parental benefit is 6 January 2020.

Your employer pays you wages while you are on leave. The remainder of the parental benefit will be paid by NAV within the 25th of each month. Check your payments at nav.no/utbetalinger.

The other parent is entitled to parental benefit. You will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

You do not have lone care for the children and will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

You do not have lone care for the children and will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

We have extended the parental benefit period by 5 weeks because you are adopting more than one child.

We have granted the following

The parental benefit amounts to the same as before. Check your payments at nav.no/utbetalinger.

The last day of parental benefit is 6 January 2020.

There are 60 days left of your quota and 11 days left that you can both take. These days must be applied for by 27 March 2020.

We have denied the following

- You are not entitled to parental benefit from 4 November 2019 up to and including 6 December 2019.

In order for you to receive the parental benefit, the mother must be fully dependent on help to be able to take care of the children due to her own illness. The medical certificate from her doctor does not indicate that this is the case.

- You may not take over the quota from 10 December 2019 up to and including 23 December 2019 because the other parent is not admitted to a health care institution.
- You may not take over the quota from 24 December 2019 up to and including 24 December 2019 because you do not have sole care of the children. Should this change, you can reapply.
- You are not entitled to parental benefit from 27 December 2019 until 31 December 2019 inclusive, because there are no more days left of the parental benefit period.
- You have applied to postpone parental benefit from 2 January 2020 up to and including 6 January 2020, but you have not sent us the documentation we asked for. We therefore do not have enough information to assess whether you are entitled to postpone parental benefit.

If you send us the required documentation within six weeks, we will reprocess your application for this period, meaning you will not need to submit a new application.

The decision has been made in accordance with the National Insurance Act Sections 14-11 and 14-12.

Because you have chosen 80 per cent parental benefit, you will be paid less per month.

You must notify any changes

You must notify NAV immediately of any changes that might affect benefits you receive. See nav.no/rettgplikt for more detailed information.

You have the right to appeal
