NAV has approved your application for 80 per cent parental benefit

Name: FURHOLT RICHARD I OCHOA

National identity number: 04068528157

We have reconsidered your case, and you are entitled to parental benefit. We have therefore changed the decision you previously have received.

You will receive 461 kroner per day before taxes starting from 4 November 2019. This is 9,988 kroner on average per month. The last day you will receive parental benefit is 6 January 2020.

Your employer pays you wages while you are on leave. The remainder of the parental benefit will be paid by NAV within the 25th of each month. Check your payments at nav.no/utbetalinger.

The other parent is entitled to parental benefit. You will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

You do not have lone care for the children and will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

You do not have lone care for the children and will therefore not be granted the whole parental benefit period.

We have extended the parental benefit period by 5 weeks because you are adopting more than one child.

We have granted the following

The parental benefit amounts to the same as before. Check your payments at nav.no/utbetalinger.

The last day of parental benefit is 6 January 2020.

There are 60 days left of your quota and 11 days left that you can both take. These days must be applied for by 27 March 2020.

We have denied the following

- You cannot postpone parental benefit from 4 November 2019 up to and including 6 December 2019, because there are no more days left of the parental benefit period.
- You cannot postpone parental benefits from 10 December 2019 up to and including 23 December 2019.

You can only postpone parental benefits if the mother is working, studying or taking part in some other activity. You can read more about this at nav.no/foreldrepenger.

- You are not entitled to parental benefit from 24 December 2019 up to and including 24 December 2019.

To get more days of parental benefit, the other parent must be working, studying or in some other activity. You can read more about this at nav.no/foreldrepenger.

- You are not entitled to parental benefit from 27 December 2019 up to and including 31 December 2019.

The parental benefit you have applied for cannot be combined with what the other parent has applied for in the same period. You can only both receive parental benefit at the same time when one of you takes 100 per cent quota and the other parent takes up to 50 per cent from the shared period.

- You cannot postpone parental benefit from 2 January 2020 up to and including 6 January 2020, because you have applied too late.

To be entitled to postpone parental benefit, you must apply before the start of the holiday. You will therefore be paid the parental benefit for the period.

The decision has been made in accordance with the National Insurance Act Sections 14-11 and 14-12.

Because you have chosen 80 per cent parental benefit, you will be paid less per month.
